CASTRO ACQUITTED OF ASSAULT

WITH A DANGEROUS WEAPON

BY THE JURY.

Francisco Castro was found not guilty of assault with a weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life by a jury in Judge Robinson's court Friday afternoon. The case for the prosecution was broken down by the testimony of a white man who swore that he heard the Chinaman assaulted scream and rushed over to him, asking who hit him. The Chinaman, according to this witness, stated that he did not know whether it was a white man or a Porto Rican and could not describe him at all.

The prosecuting witness identified Castro as the man who had hit him, but after the testimony that he had been unable to describe his assailant immediately after the assault he was discredited by the jury. Castro's reputation also helped him to get free.

DEAR GOODS.

The pictures of Island fruit in the Paradise for May are so fine they make us all fruit hungry. Why does not someone go in for raising alligator pears, miles of them; for they are so high-priced now none but the rich can think of buying. Fancy a decent pear, only a couple for a quarter, when we have been told a whole tree is sold for a few dollars on Hawaii, for instance. For pity's sake will some one go into the industry, and give us pears at some sort of fair price. We cannot afford to eat money and we like pears.

EDITOR TIMES.

DANGEROUS GROUND.

Ascum—Why did you recommend the Wayback House to that rich old uncle of yours? It's one of the poorest and cheapest houses at the shore.

Shrude—Well, I want to save my money.

Ascum—Your money? Are you going with him?

Shrude—No, but I'm his heir.—Philadelphia Press.

You will find a good while before you find a liniment that is equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. In cases of rheumatism and sciatica it relieves the intense pain and makes sleep and rest possible. Soreness of the muscles, swellings and lameness are quickly relieved by it, and for the treatment of cuts and bruises there is nothing better.
